Apeejay Kolkata Literary Festival 2015 – Day 3

Event: A discussion on ‘Meltdown: From the highlands of Tibet to the Deltas’ by Micheal Buckley, in conversation with Sutanu Ghosh and Sreeradha Dutta

Kolkata, 16th January, 2015: Apeejay Literary Kolkata Festival 2015 hosted a discussion on ‘Meltdown: From the highlands of Tibet to the Deltas’ by Michael Buckley, environmentalist, travel-writer and documentary filmmaker in conversation with Sutanu Ghosh, environmental consultant and Dr. Sreeradha Dutta, Director, MAKAIAS.

The discussion touched upon the subject of the damage caused to India and China’s fragile ecosystems from extensive development projects. It further threw light on the hazards of modern day industrialization which has been severely detrimental for the environment and its ecosystems. This was followed by an audio visual presentation on the subject.

About Apeejay Kolkata Literary Festival (AKLF):

Apeejay Kolkata Literary Festival (AKLF) is Kolkata's pioneering literary festival. Instituted in 2010 by the Apeejay Surrendra Group and its heritage Oxford Bookstore on Park Street, AKLF grows out of the bookstore's year round involvement with books, writers & publishers. In the six years since Kolkata saw her first literary festival in AKLF, literary festivals have mushroomed across the country, but AKLF stands apart with its unique identity as the only one with a now 94-year-old bookstore as its nucleus. AKLF offers an atmosphere of warm, welcoming intimacy, favors depth over size, and includes a variety of subjects from history to the environment. AKLF also celebrates Kolkata's magnificent public monuments and heritage sites as settings for Festival events and eminent literati and cultural stalwarts from across India and overseas join the festival scheduled every year in the second week of January. In 2015 AKLF explores literature as part of our tangible and intangible heritage, a theme that runs through several sessions of the festival. AKLF focusses on younger writers, newer voices and fresh audiences in its ongoing attempt to build an audience for books and reading. Prominent personalities attending will be Hanif Kureishi, Naseeruddin Shah, Charles Allen, John Elliott, Mohammed Hanif, Leila Seth, Michael Buckley, Upamanyu Chatterjee, David Davidar, Shekhar Gupta, Shashi Tharoor, Asish Nandy, Ramachandra Guha, Kishwar Desai, Nabaneeta Dev Sen amongst several others. There are some firsts in AKLF 2015. A heritage literary walk, a literary 'adda', a Young Adult litfest for high school students, a bloggers' meet, a children's bookfest crammed with activities, even a standup comic for the college crowd and a leadership training session for young teens on importance of character, karma and individual social responsibility™. Add to that our signature heritage site evenings at The Indian Museum, National Library, Victoria Memorial, Lascar War Memorial, indepth discussions, top of the line authors, thinkers and performers, and you have a literary experience not to be missed. And all absolutely free for Kolkata and her culture-loving audience.
